Mountaineers To Face Folsom At Truckee Sunday

Slap - Happy Tilt With Old Timers Provides Much Fun

The Folsom team from the Placer Nevada League will be here Sunday afternoon to meet the Truckee Tahoe Mountaineers in the fourth game in the second half of the series.

Folsom has won two games and lost one while Truckee has won one and lost two during the second half.

In a fun-fest at the Truckee park last Sunday the Old Timers, made up from a group of former baseball players from Truckee, met the Mountaineers and while the score will always be in doubt from a strictly orthodox standpoint, there were 20 Mountaineers over the plate and 16 Old Timers.

Fumbles, many of them purposely made, featured the game. Hitters ran the wrong way, batters succeeded themselves at bat and everyone played where they liked. The announcer, Dick Little, had a tough time trying to keep track of the ball and the scorekeeper was in a worse mess during the five or six innings of fun.

The freak game was witnessed by a fair sized crowd.

Some of the old timers like Nate McCrary, Moke Kielhofer and Johnny Moretta played briefly and gave good account of themselves.

Sunday's contest will see the Mountaineers back in a more serious frame of mind since Folsom will be a hard team to beat.

Truckee Damage Suit Before Jury In Superior Court

Smiths Asking $350,000 From Truck Firm For Injuries

The $350,000 personal damage suit against the Silvey Livestock Transportation Company of Hayward, filed February 2 by Harry and Vivian Smith of Truckee, went to trial before a jury in superior court at Nevada City Tuesday morning.

The suit was filed as the result of injuries received by Mr. and Mrs. Smith when a car in which they were riding and a truck operated by Manuel J. Abreau for the company collided at the McIver turn late in January. Mrs. Smith is still a patient at the Reno hospital and her husband was released several weeks ago. Both suffered serious injuries.

The two complaints charge that Abreau was negligent. He was cited following the crash for driving without due caution on the icy highway.

A third action against the Silvey company by Charles B. Cross, manager for the Truckee-Tahoe Lumber Company and a passenger in the car at the time of the crash, who asks $75,000, will be heard in the superior court Monday.

Truckee is growing up. To meet this development it will be necessary to expand our utilities and other facilities and the board of directors of the Truckee Public Utility District are taking the required initiative in preparing for a $75,000 bond issue. The money will be used to improve the present inadequate water system and provide the town with mains and storage facilities which are sorely needed. The water department, since it was taken over from the old McGlashan Company as an emergency measure to keep the area provided with water has been a source of expense and considerable grief, the district never sufficiently financed to do the things necessary to make it adequate. The bond money should make the improvements required to put the system on a substantial, worry-free basis and if properly handled will go a long way in keeping pace with the community's growth.

Despite reassurances from Washington that there is no immediate danger of a sudden "freeze" on consumer goods, there has been a run on items most likely to be affected by war conditions. From various parts of the country come reports that the demand has been heavy for nylons, sugar, automobiles and tires, pillow cases and sheets and other things which were hard to get during World War II. There are now indications of a tapering off in this demand and unless the Korean situation worsens to a marked degree it should subside completely. The sudden burst of buying however must have brought back to some merchants memories of the years when it wasn't necessary to "sell" things—the demand was greater than the supply. During those years the art of selling, so indispensable to a buyer's market, was all but lost, and to regain it a great deal of effort, such as the extensive sales instruction campaign sponsored by the state's largest bank was put forth. That instruction, by the way, has proved highly successful and has been enthusiastically received by businessmen in scores of communities. Intelligent selling is the very backbone of American industry and commerce but feverish buying tends to unsettle our economy and do more damage than good.

District Planning Bond Election To Improve System

$75,000 Issue Would Be Liquidated From Revenues

Due to the general increase in business and the need for expanding the facilities of the District to meet the growing needs of this area, the board of directors of the Truckee Public Utility District are considering the advisability of a bond issue in the near future.

It is becoming increasingly difficult, said Manager C. Edmunds, to meet all the expenses incidental to this increase out of the revenues of the district as has been done in the past 20 years. The need for further expansion and improvement of the water system will call for an expenditure of several thousand dollars and the matter has been referred to Attorney T. L. Chamberlain of the district for an opinion.

Last year the directors had an engineers' report submitted to them to improve the water system of the district. This report called for the expenditure of $150,000. The directors felt this was beyond the means of the district at the time and borrowed $15,000 from the Bank of America to take care of the immediate and urgent needs of the water system. Of this loan, $2500 becomes due and will be paid off on August 1. The continued growth within the district makes it imperative for further financing at this time, Edmunds said.

The tentative proposal submitted by Edmunds to the board for their consideration calls for a bond issue of approximately $75,000 to be repaid wholly out of the revenues of the district, over a period of 30 years. It is thought that an interest rate of around three per cent can be obtained.

The money from the sale of the bonds would be used as follows:

Additional storage tank, with 100,000 gallons capacity, connected to the town system near the present tunnel reservoir; reimburse bank loan, $12,500; connect up Gateway and town systems with a six inch main. This would enable the Gateway system, which now has a storage capacity of 100,000 gallons to supplement the town system in case of emergency or vice versa. Additional pumping facilities on Gateway system; purchase of additional equipment (two trucks and accessories; reimburse electric fund money expended on purchase of McGlashan Water System; purchase of and interconnection of other water systems in town, and legal incidentals.

SURVEYS TIMBER POTENTIAL OVER SUMMIT DISTRICT

by WENDALL ROBIE
(In the Colfax Record)

One-half of the timber area of Placer County is tributary to the Railroad Divide. The portion from Auburn to Colfax was cut out during the early mining days and the reproduction on the American River side has been practically destroyed from frequent fires, many of which originated at the railroad. Some sheltered areas on the Bear River slope have small amounts of second growth stands from 25 to 55 years of age.

The virgin pine forest which originally covered the mountains from Colfax to the Yuba Pass beyond Emigrant Gap was heavily logged with old-time logging equipment during the 40 years from 1860 to 1900. It is stated this region has the fastest growing potential of any pine forest area in the Sierra and a heavy vigorous second growth stand has been reproduced. However, because of the selective character of early logging which took out the pine, this present reproduction is predominately fir.

Over the Summit

A more or less virgin type forest which remains from Cisco to the Truckee River in the granite formation is of slow growth. In this region of deep snow, timber is scattered, has considerable cull factor or over-maturity and has little concentration to support a commercial operation in that area of short season. It has acceptable possibilities for truck logging of selected saw logs combined with pulpwood sale of low grades.

South of Soda Springs, between the North and Middle Forks of the American River, is a large virgin forest containing approximately 300 million feet, about half pine and half fir. Much of this timber is near the French Meadows Basin.

Most of the high mountain timber lands are in the ownership of the U. S. National Forest with much of the private stumpage owned by Stockton Box Company and other operators.

Logging Operations

It is expected this whole region of high altitude timber will provide for logging operations only and, because of the short season free from deeps snows, that the processes of manufacture and utilization will be conducted elsewhere.

Excellent facilities are available both by rail and highway for transportation to lower altitudes. With the completion of the large plant nof under construction on the louer Sacramento River by Fiberboard Products, it is believed some substantial logging operations can center in mountain timber adjacent to railroad transportation of logs suitable for pulp material. Profit possibilities are unknofn, depending upon the price and other considerations offered by the plant.

Utilization Beneficial

Utilization of this large stand of timber can be beneficial because of its present over-maturity. Good logging practice can leave this region in better condition than at present and with substantial annual production by new growth per acre.

Utilization of this timber on a conservative program in eastern Placer County can provide for several hundred men annually and largely benefit that region if cooperation is provided by the county and the national government to provide an adequate hard surfaced road from the railroad at Soda Springs to French Meadows, suitable for a heavy trucking log haul.

Camp Pahatsi Is Full For Third Week

Camp Pahatsi, near Donner Summit, started its third full week July 9, according to Scout Executive Ray J. Ewan. For the second week, 106 Boy Scouts and leaders were in camp and the same number are on hand this week.

Following the close of the third week on July 16, a two weeks Explorer session will open for Explorer members of troops and posts of the Tahoe Area Council.

Since a number of Scouts were not able to be accomodated during the regular Boy Scout three weeks session, Ewan announced a special session for regular Boy Scouts would be opened for the period July 16 to 23, if enough Boy Scout camp reservations were received to justify this operation. Scouts interested in going for this special should immediately send camp applications to the Scout Office, 924 Lincoln Way, Auburn.

SWANEE'S TAHOE LETTER

Tahoo City, Calif.
July 13th, 1950

Dear Tahoeites:

Tahoe City and vicinity is some what clouded over os I write my weekly letter, and late last night a short but heavy rainfall visited our region. Business was good over the Fourth of July holidays and crowds of people lined the bridge railing over the Truckee to watch the big trout cavort about near the dam as cars were noted from all over the United States. Only two accidents occurred in this area and both of them were of a minor nature, with only slight injuries to occupants of the cars.

The big event of the weekend was the Tahoe Yacht Club races which, while quite entertaining, failed to draw the big crowds of former years. It was unfortunate that Donner Lake had its regatta on the same day and another double date for the racing boats will occur on July 30 when the Auxiliary of Flotilla 61, Lake Tahoe, stages its regatta. For I learned yesterday from Mrs. Fred Hallett of Oakland that the inboard races will be held on Lake Merritt on the same date and some of the boys who might have come to Tahoe will be unable to do so. Too bad a check could not be made in advance in setting these dates to avoid duplication but am sure that the regatta on the 30th will bring in the huge crowd (estimated at around 8,000 persons) for these races which hold such exciting promise to boating fans. Mrs. Hallett and her husband have been attending the Tahoe Yacht Club races for years and he handles the thankless task of handicapper while she serves as recorder. It was generally regretted too that R. Stanley Dollar Jr., the club's commodore, could not be present to give Henry Kaiser some competition in the championship but a date with the stork in the bay area made his attendance impossible. Max Collins drove Kaiser's big aluminum racer to an easy victory without any difficulty, while Archie McLean rode as mechanic. Kaiser hopes to break some racing records in the East in the future with his new Hot Metal, a 1500 hp Allison engined job.

Dropped in to say howdy to my old friend, Dr. C. B. Pedersen, resident physician at Tahoe Tavern for his 15th year. He skipped six years at the lake while doing his stint as colonel in the Medical Corps for Uncle Sam during World War II. Dr. and Mrs. Pedersen have bought an attractive home with considerable acreage just above Auburn in the foothills which they have named Casa Sierra. They have chickens, a horse and lovely garden. Mrs. Pedersen and their daughter Mi-ette, who attends high school in Auburn, will visit him during the summer from time to time, for brief vacations. Doctor's hours are 8:45 a.m. to noon, 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. and 7:30 to 8:30 p.m and his nurse this season is Miss M. Benita Schjaastad of Los Angeles.

Chanced to meet two of my old neighbors over the weekend, Mrs. Manuel Lopes of San Leandro and Mrs. Lee Hand of San Francisco, both summer residents of the Timberland Tract. Both families have opened their homes and are looking forward to a plesant summer with lots of friends on their visiting lists. Also ran into Mrs. Ernest Hoerdler, recently arrived from the family winter residence at Covina. Their lovely daughter, 16-year-old Mary Ann, did not accompany them this season but is remaining at home for the present. She is a senior at Covina high school. Their elder daughter, Mrs. Pat Geddis and two children of Covina are planning a vacation at the lake some time in August. Ernie himself is barber at Tahoe Inn for the season but will be remembered as a marvelous chef who has graced Tahoe Tavern's galley and some years ago operated the Pullman Diner at the entrance to Tahoe City near the wye.

The Floyd Carnells on Thursday last visited with their younger son, Howard, at Camp Pendleton, Oceanside. They drove down to bid fond adieu to Howard and to bring his car back, the latter unnecessary as he had sold same. Howard expects to leave around the middle of this week with his group, the First Medical Battalion of the First Marine Division, for Asiatic waters. He has been stationed at Pendleton for a year and a half and during that time saw duty in the medical corps and then in the transportation corps. He is now back in the medics, slated to drive an ambulance. He is eager to go and I feel certain he is the first Tahoe boy to be called to duty in the present emergency. He will turn 19 on August 19 and is a true son of Lake Tahoe, having been born at Meeks Bay where he was known for years by the nickname of "Little Meeks". He was busy taking 'shots" and getting his papers made out. All his many friends at the lake wish him the very best of good luck on his new assignment. One of the biggest thrills he had during his period of enlistment was taking second place in the Lake Tahoe Ski Club's sanctioned meet in Class B jumping during last March. After fighting a blizzard over the Donner Summit on the way up, little sleep and no practice, he was delighted to find he had lost none of his jumping ability and form. The Carnells visited at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Hemmick in Beverly Hills before returning to Tahoe's cooling breezes, a treat after the simmering heat of the Los Angeles area.

Had unexpected company Sunday morning when Mrs. Vera Acton and Miss Amelia Busalak of Oakland drove in to visit us on their way home, following a cross country trip which took them to Lansing, Mich., where Mrs. Acton purchased a new Oldsmobile sedan. They consumed three weeks on their trip, seeing sights in Chicago, Niagra Falls, through Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, where they looked over the famous little town of Santa Claus, Mrs. Joseph Metzler and other relatives, through Kansas and Colorado, to visit at the home of Mrs. F. M. Berkibile, a trip to Pike's Peak and a visit in Estes Park with a cousin Marie Richter and Florence Fischer, then on to Reno and Tahoe, with a stopover at Lake Chalets Motel, dinner at Conger's on Sunday night with son Jimmie and myself, and on to Oakland on Monday morning.

Ring off for the weew with a warm and sincere "Thanks" to all my old friends and neighbors who have welcomed me home with such genuine gusto. I'm right happy I was missed so much and hope I can truly measure up to all the grand compliments. Good luck, good health and happy days ahead to you all, as ever,

SWANEE

WOMEN'S CLUB TO SPONSOR CIVIC PROJECTS, PARTY

TAHOE CITY— Members of the Women's Club of Tahoe met last Thursday afternoon in the Tahoe Community Center hall, their president, Mrs. Everett V. O'Rourke presiding. Minutes of the previous meeting were dispensed with as Secretary Vera Frazier was not present. Mrs. Margaret Madden gave her treasurer's report.

The project proposed by club members for the current season was abandoned following the reading of a letter from C. H. Whitmore, district highway engineer of Marysville. The project was to have been the beautifying and landscaping of the highway wye near Tahoe City. Whitmore said his office has discussed the plan proposed by the club and had looked over the site but found the move inadvisable at this time. The second project considered by the club will now be carried out, this being the beautification of the town's small cemetery which lies just above the Tahoe City golf links on Fairway Dive. Mrs. Eleanor Swanson was made chairman of this project.

Mrs. Jeannette Mitchell was given the task of securing a large ledger for the purupose of registering home owners and winter and summer renters who wish to make their places of residence easier to locate. It was proposed to include all those residing within Township 11, extending from Carnelian Bay on the north to Tahoma district on the south and down the Truckee River as far as Big Chief Camp. Permission will be asked to place the register at the Chamber of Commerce booth now open daily just west of Tahoe City, where general information on the lake is dispensed free of charge.

A luncheon and card party will be sponsored by members of the club in Tahoe Community Center hall of July 20 at 1 p.m. and the public is cordially invited. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. June Gowing, Tahoe City 73W, or Mrs. Ivan Wilson, Tahoe City 377W. Each club member has been requested to fill at least one table. Those in charge of the luncheon menu include Mesdames Wilson, Jean Henry, P. G. Friday, Jeannette Mitchell and Muriel Henry.

Mrs. Marguerite Webb read a letter from the American Friends complimenting the Women's Club of Tahoe for having hosted an International Tea at Homewood Hotel last summer for the members of the Seminar for World Peace who gathered at the Methodist Camp Grounds in Lake Forest.

Hostesses for the club's next meeting on August 3rd will be Mesdames Mitchell, Webb, Snyder and Louise Geier.

Those attending the Truckee Wyethia Club's silver tea at the Walter Loynd home in Gateway Park were Mesdames Imon Mitchell, Zella Mortimer, Marguerite Webb, Fern Schlueter and H. L. Youman.

STARTLED DOE IS RESCUED AFTER LONG SWIM IN LAKE

TAHOE CITY— Two animal stories of interest are being told at Tahoe this week.

One occurred on July 5 when Mrs. Irene Little, who with her huband operates the dining room at Sunnyside Lodge, chanced to glance from window out onto the lake around 8 a.m. She was sure she saw some object floating or swimming about three miles out from shore. She called her husband and Conrad Briner to take a look. Convinced they also saw some object, the trio called upon Ralph Sears, owner of the resort, for the use of his binoculars.

Something resembling a tree with branches could be seen moving in the water, so Sears decided to send out his 19-foot Higgins speedboat to investigate. Paul Salvater, a carpenter at the resort, Bill Briner and Don Niell mannned the craft and sped to the moving object, carrying along a rope for emergency. As they neared the mystery "float" they saw it was a half grown doe, its long ears standing grotesquely out of the water as it swam rapidly away from shore. Using the rope they had brought, the animal, exhausted and frightened, was maneuvered by the three men into the boat and brought back to Sunnyside. With a swift jump it was off through the yard and across the street, running through the Tahoe Lodge grounds. Here it encountered a dog and put up a stiff fight before again taking off into the Rudolph Zimmerman's property. It is believed dogs had run it into the lake in the first place and at last reports Mary Jane Doe was safe once more in the Tahoe forest.

The second story concerns a chipmunk which has visited each morning at the Imon Mitchell home in Sunnyside. A house-guest, Mrs. H. L. Youman of San Francisco, bought a large bag of peanuts and each day the fed the little animals on the window sill. One morning, after the family returned from town, they found the bag of peanuts on Mrs. Youman's dresser torn apart and empty. Little chipmunk had come for his daily rations and finding none there, had entered the house and helped himself.

Board Orders Fence on Beach Destroyed

The Placer County board of supervisors directed District Attorney C. E. Tindall to write to C. D. Huff of Homewood Resort ordering him to remove a fence from Lakeside Beach, Lake Tahoe. The supervisors believe they can prove the area fenced by Huff is a public thoroughfare.

Delegates of residents of the Homewood area appeared before the board to protest the closing of the beach after erection of the fence.

TRANS - SUMMIT RIDE SET FOR EARLY IN SEPT.

The Auburn Sierra Rangers, the Roseville Rangers, the Nevada County Horsemen and the Placer County Historical Society are working out tentative plans for a three-day horseback ride over the old Emigrant-Donner Trail on September 2, 3 and 4.

The former organization is this year sponsoring the ride. It is the hope of the group that this may become a yearly ride. The trail is the only one of its kind with such historical interest.

Cliff Dancer of the Nevada County Horseman states he can take the group to the actual spot and show the iron marks in the rocks where the covered wagons were let down over the cliffs by the pioneers. The original iron stakes were removed since the war.

Mrs. G. Gilchrist of the Placer County Historical Society states her group is eager to furnish and participate in the evening's entertainment and dinner on the first night out.

Howard Smith of the U.S. Forest Service promises full support in establishing overnight camps and rest stops along the way.

Many will recall the work done by the Gold Trail Riders in 1948. That club assisted in working out a map of the Nevada County riding and hiking trails, which map was approved by the board of supervisors and passed on to the proper state authorities. From all information received, Nevada County's trail has been approved except for one bridge.

Full details for the ride in September will be worked out at the next meeting of the group in Auburn on July 21.

HANDS UP

Dr. and Mrs. Lee Hand opened their summer home in Timberland Tract at Lake Tahoe. Guests over the weekend were Dr. and Mrs. Frank Hand and family, Dr. and Mrs. J. Lungren of Long Beach and Miss Corinne Crippen of Los Angeles.

Kaiser Entry Wins Lake Regatta Title

TAHOE CITY— Hundreds of spectators witnessed the Tahoe Yacht Club's 33rd annual Regatta off Tahoe Tavern pier on Sunday morning, starting at 9:45. Weather was semi-clouded and water choppy over the three mile course. Brooks Walker, chairman of the Regatta committee, did a grand job as usual announcing the events over the loud speaker hookup loaned for the occasion by N. R. Mayfield and Fred Main of Tahoe Boat Company at Tahoe City. Dozens of motor craft were stationed in the center of the racing course to witness the events and a plane soared overhead while the Rusty Rustads' yacht sailed along in the background.

First race of the day was the 115 hp taken by Wells Watkins of Reno in Little Rebel in 8:33 with Jay Murphy of San Francisco second in Toss in 9:14.

Special event race for 135 and 225 cubic inch and crackerboxes went to Vernon Dallman of San Franciso in Hard Wa in 3:47 with Bud Lampson of South Tahoe second in PeeWee in 5:04.

The 145 hp event was won by Reno's Randy Walker in Ranjac VI in 7:31, Dallman's Hard Wa second in 7:45, Watkins' Little Rebel third in 9:11 and Jay Murphy's Toss fourth in 9:16.

The 165 hp race went to Charles Mapes of Reno in the Gloria M in 6:59 with Carl Bechdolt Jr. of Tahoe City second in the CS Parky in 7:09, Randy Walker's Ranjac third in 7:36 and Vernon Dallman's Hard Wa fourth in 7:50.

Brad Baruh of San Franiciso placed first in the 325 hp event in 6:54, second place going to Rudolph Zimmerman, San Francisco and Sunnyside, with Zim-A-Ru in 7:03, third place to E. L. Oliver, Piedmont and Sunnyside, with Hey There IV in 7:13 and Larry Metcalf's Tecolote fourth in 7:18.

The novelty bang-and-go-back race was won by Charles Mapes' Gloria M, Murphy's Toss second and R. Walker's Ranjac VI third. Three boats were disqualified for jumping the gun.

The coveted Lake Tahoe Championship race free-for-all over five laps went handily to Henry J. Kaiser's newest 1500 hp aluminum racing craft, Hot Metal, making its first appearance at Tahoe in 11 minutes 48 seconds. Baruh's Shooting Star was second in 12:01, Oliver's Hey There IV was third in 12:40, Metcalf's Tecolote fourth in 13:03 and Mapes' Gloria M was last in 13:05. Bechdolt's CS Parky had engine trouble and had to drop out.

Handicap race went to Randy Walker's Ranjac, Larry Metcalf of Piedmont in Tecolote came in second and Baruh's Shooting Star placed third.

The Commodore's Cup went to Randy Walker, with 17 points, for having accrued the most points during the regatta. Mrs. Carl Bechdolt Jr. presented the trophies at the pier at the conclusion of the races.

The next regatta will be held on August 13 at Chambers' Lodge. R. Stanley Dollar Jr., commodore of the Tahoe Yacht Club, could not be present for Sunday's events because of his wife's date with the long legged bird in San Francisco some time this week.

CONGERS DECLARE WINTER TRADE AT LAKE WAS GOOD

TAHOE CITY— Conger's Cafe, at the big Christmas tree in the heart of Tahoe City, is starting its fourth season this year. Bill and Shirley Conger, who are two of Tahoe's most popular residents, have made every effort to conduct the most modern eatery, with finest foods, meticulous care and cleanliness their policy.

During the 1949 season they remained open throughout the entire winter and found the experiment quite profitable. It was so gratifying that they will repeat this year, remaining open the year 'round. On New Year's Day alone they served 40 dozen eggs for breakfast and a solid line of customers stood waiting for seats from 7 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Some of this increased business they attribute to Squaw Valley's famous sky chair lift and skiing facilities, for the big resort cannot feed all of the crowds which flock there for recreation. With interest increasing in winter sports in general the Congers are looking forward to an even better winter season for not only their cafe but all others in the Truckee-Tahoe area.

Several motel units have been added to the Conger property and more will be added from time to time.

Several motel units have been added to the Conger property and more will be added from time to time.

The crew at Conger's this summer includes Mesdames Viola Bosen, Pauline Sheehan, Anne Simpson and Grace Gehlhert, and Bob Hughes is assistant chef to Bill Conger.

Guests of Kin—

Mrs. Grace Schrom and son Bobbie of San Francisco are spending an extended vacation at the home of her sister, Mrs. E. V. O'Rourke, on the Truckee River in the former LaMarr home near Big Chief.

Prominent Guests Leave Tavern for Homes

TAHOE TAVERN— Prominent guests who have just returned to their homes following vacations at the Tavern include Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Hills of Pontiac, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. H. Hoffman of Burlingame, Hans Frankenstein and children of Modesto, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. P. Kehoe Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Chester Gannon, all of Sacramento, and Dr. Walter Fischel, Oriental language professor from University of California at Berkeley.

Honeymoon couples who have just left for home include Mr. and Mrs. William F. Minto of Sacramento, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gibberman of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Donald L. Gold of Hollywood and Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Niebel of Kansas City, Mo.

Instruction is given daily at Lake Forest at 12:45 to 2:30 p.m. and at Tahoe City beach from 2:45 to 5 p.m. All children, whether regular or summer residents, are invited to join the classes.

Tahoe Statistics

Coldest day of the past week was on the morning of July 5 when 41 degrees were registered. Warmest was on July 1st with 84. A trace of precipitation covered the ground Sunday night, according to Arthur Frodenberg, in charge of weather readings at Tahoe City.

Widow Recommended for Placer Board Vacancy

At a meeting of the Placer County board of supervisors in Auburn last week the members approved a resolution asking Gov. Earl Warren to appoint Mrs. John McFadden as a member of the board to serve until a successor is chosen at the general election for her late husband, who passed away a few weeks ago.

There is much business of importance to Supervisorial District No. 5 which includes Foresthill, Iowa Hill and Tahoe City and the board is anxious to have the district represented before the new budget is approved. Mrs. McFadden knows of the needs ot the diistrict through her late husband's long service on the board.

DONNER REGATTA DRAWS THRONGS AT RACES SUNDAY

The first outboard motorboat races held at Donner Lake Sunday drew a crowd estimated at 5,000 which completely lined the west shore of the lake. The drivers declared that they would be sure and return for next year's regatta held under APDA sanction.

A star-studded group of outboard drivers was entered in the Westinghouse Donner Lake regatta and Bud Wiget of Concord and his wife Ethel copped most of the honors. The fastest mile lap of the day was made by Wiget, driving the "Air Express." He did one lap in 6:40.2, although he finished third in the race behind Frank Nunes and Roy Hansen.

At the banquet following the races, held at the Donner Lake Lodge, Tosca Masini, "Miss Nevada 1950", presented the electrical appliances, used as trophies, to the winners.

It was announced at the banquet that the next aquatic event scheduled for Donner Lake would be the water skiing contests, set for July 22 and 23. This will be the West Coast Water Ski Tournament and will be sanctioned by the American Water Ski Association. The committee for this event includes John Warnke, chairman; J. Paul Gutleben, Gene Doran, in charge of the slalom; Roy Beach, in charge of jumping, and Harold Brown, in charge of trick jumping. Some of the star water skiers on the Pacific Coast are practicing on Donner Lake for the events.

Tahoe Road Injunction Continued by Court

Belieu of Glenn County, sitting in Auburn, has continued in force a preliminary injunction granted the Brockway Land and Water Company against the County of Placer, its board of supervisors and road commissioner to prevent construction of a road in the Brockway section of Lake Tahoe.

He ordered each side to submit written briefs, following oral arguments, before determining if the injunction will be permanent.

The plaintiffs claim title to a portion of the land used in the construction work. The supervisors contend it is county property and desire to continue with the program.

4H Clubs Plan Camp In Summit Area

Placer and Nevada County 4-H Clubs are combining their funds and efforts to establish a summer camp at a 10 acre tract at Woodchuck Flat near Cisco Grove. The land has been leased from the Forest Service.

The clubs have been holding annual camps at this place for many yars. Last year the 4-H boys and girls leased the ground and plans are afoot for improving the site.

This summer they are erecting buildings and piping water into the central area. Construction of a kitchen will start soon. In addition, areas will be cleared of trees and a baseball diamond will be part of the camp.

TAHOE RESORT HAS MORE TROUBLE OVER WATER MAIN

RENO— Water! Water! Everywhere—and nothing but trouble for Eddie Sahati, who operates a summer season resort at Lake Tahoe. He has the authorities of two states on his neck over the stuff.

W. W. White, Nevada state health engineer, announces he is ordering the water cut off to Sahati's country club, restaurant and hotel because the system was installed without inspection and approval from the sanitary engineering department.

Even if Nevada finally approves his water system, Sahati must make his peace with the El Dorado County (Calif.) board of supervisors. They ordered him to remove the pipeline, contending it was laid along a road on the California side of the line. If he doesn't, the supervisors warned, they'll order the diggers out themselves and send Sahati the bill.

LABOUR GOV'T, NEW DEAL ARE SAID SIMILAR

BERKELEY— "Crisis in Britain — Plans and Achievements of the Labour Government" has just been published by the University of California Press.

Written by Robert A. Brady, professor of economics on the Berkeley campus of the University of California, the volume presents an intensive examination of the background and content of the important laws passed by the Labour Government from 1945 to 1949.

"Two subjects dominated the study throughout," writes the author, "the nature and meaning of the Labour Party's 'middle-way Socialism' and the content and future possibilities of the British version of economic planning."

The Labour Party assumed the duties of government in Britain in the autumn of 1945, committed to a special type of gradualist Socialism. "From the moment of its coming to power," Dr. Brady relates, "the Labour Party has had to contend with issues that were the legacies of two world wars, as well as the unsolved problems, domestic and international, that led to those wars. While it was battling for economic survival in the international sphere, it was attempting a broad social and economic revolution within the country."

"It appears that there is no clearcut philosophy for this 'middle-way,' and the difficulty of seeing clearly what is taking place in Britain arises from that very fact. No single doctrine or body of principles is guiding the Labour Party, but, rather, there is a practical, empirical, experimental approach.

"The program of the Labour Party, as it thus emerges, bears a resemblance to the American New Deal program as visualized by President Roosevelt. It is therefore important for Americans to realize that the progress or failure of British recovery under the Labour Government bears a vital relation to the prospects of American democracy," Professor Brady believes.
